The image shows a web interface for submitting files. At the top, it says "Submit files". Below that, there is a dropdown menu with "Poster" selected. A red callout box points to this dropdown with the text "1. Please confirm the session". Below the dropdown is the text "Upload files *". A large dashed blue box contains a cloud icon with a plus sign and several document icons, with the text "Drag and drop files" below it. A red callout box points to this area with the text "2. Please drop the file here". Below the dashed box is a "Select Files" button. At the bottom right of the interface is a blue "Submit" button. A red callout box points to this button with the text "3. Please push the submit button".
